

MACH (Mujeres Activas en el Comercio Hispano) offers advanced tutoring in Spanish to obtain a GED Diploma

Thanks to MACH's initiative, dozens of students will be able to obtain their diplomas equivalent to high school

Los Angeles- August, 2011.- Since GED initiated in 1942, more than 13 million people have obtained their diploma equivalent to high school, through the numerous programs all over the United States.

There are many benefits that the students obtain once they have completed the program, like the opportunity to go into a university or a community college and finish a university career or obtain a certification in a specific area. More than 90% of employers, schools and universities accept a GED as an equivalent to a high school diploma..

The GED (General Educational Development) exam is composed of five parts, which consist of the following subjects: Writing, Social Studies, Science, Mathematics and Interpretation of literature and Art. All applicants must pass all five exams to receive their GED certificate.

These classes are being offered at two locations:

Los Angeles: 412 W. 6th Street piso 11, Los Angeles CA 90014
Schedule: Monday and Thursdays- 6pm to 9pm
Saturdays- 9am to 12:30pm

Van Nuys: 14515 Hamlin St. suite 100 Van Nuys CA 91411
Schedule: Wednesday- 6pm to 9pm
